

Selected topics on the extension problem for positive definite functions

Zoltán Sasvári

Heinz Langer and Mark Grigorievich Krein devoted numerous papers to the extension problem for positive definite functions. In the present talk we will speak about some selected topics from this field and about some recent applications.