

Perturbation Bounds for Relativistic Spectra

K. Veselić

The newly developed perturbation theory for finite eigenvalues is applied to typical cases with spectral gaps: (i) the Dirac operator with the Coulomb potential and (ii) the supersymmetric Dirac oscillator. Sharp relative bounds are obtained.