

The parabolic Harnack inequality for metric graphs

S. Haeseler

We consider energy forms with general weights on metric graphs. We study the intrinsic metric, volume doubling and a Poincaré inequality. This enables us to prove a parabolic Harnack inequality. The proof involves various techniques from the theory of strongly local Dirichlet forms.