Normal operators in indefinite inner product spaces

Christian Mehl

In the talk, normal operators in possibly degenerate indefinite inner product spaces are discussed. Properties like for example the existence of invariant maximal semidefinite subspaces are investigated and the results are compared with the corresponding results for nondegenerate inner products. This is joint work with A. Ran and L. Rodman.